

Faculty Advisor

The faculty advisor stays with your child from orientation day through graduation. This advisor can give you an overall picture of how your child is doing and serves as a point of contact (when specific concerns arise). Your child has a group meeting with the advisor every D schedule and individual meetings throughout the year.

Teachers

Your child's teachers are available for professional input within their subjects. Teachers are available to students after class, during common preparation periods, office hours, and via appointments outside of normal school hours. Teachers are also available to parents via phone, email and appointments. Teachers make recommendations for and give approvals of course selections each spring.

Academic Counselor

One of the academic counselors meets with each student during the freshman year and stays with that student through graduation. The counselor is available for consultation and works with teachers and the faculty advisor if a student needs academic and social-emotional support.

Academic Dean and Pre-College Counselor

The academic dean, Kelly Horan (408.345.9238), meets individually with ninth graders and their parents during their first year at the upper school. Ms. Horan helps students set up and review a four-year plan of courses and extracurriculars that best meets the needs and interests of the student. She is also an important stepping stone in preparing students for the college process later on. She provides students and parents pre-college counseling information (including information on standardized tests) so that students are ready to smoothly transition to the college counselors in the second semester of the junior year.

Dean of Students

The dean of students, Kevin Williamson (408.345.9604), is available to answer questions and to provide support for students in the areas of student life and activities during the school day. Mr. Williamson can also answer questions regarding the Honor Code and student discipline.

LIFE Program

(Living with Intent, Focus and Enthusiasm)

The director of the LIFE program, Jane Keller (408.345.9633), oversees the programs that support the non-academic well-being of the students and the Eagle Buddies program. The LIFE schedule can be found on the parent portal.

Upper School Head

The upper school head, Butch Keller (408.345.9673), is responsible for all areas in the upper school. Mr. Keller can answer questions about policies and procedures in the upper school both academic and extracurricular.
